England 9 nights / 10 days
Self-drive through Cotswolds, Cornwall and Devon

Day 1: Arrival in London
Welcome to England! Upon arrival at London airport, enjoy a seamless private transfer to your hotel in the vibrant capital. Spend the afternoon exploring London at your own pace – the city's efficient Tube network makes it easy to navigate. Discover the atmospheric Borough Market, one of London's oldest food markets brimming with artisan vendors and international flavours, or stroll along the South Bank taking in iconic Thames-side views of Tower Bridge and the London Eye. Overnight in London.

Day 2: London to Cotswolds
Check out and make your way to the car rental office via the Tube to collect your vehicle. Once on the road, drive northwest to the enchanting Cotswolds, England's quintessential countryside region. Arrive by early afternoon to explore honey-coloured stone villages like Bourton-on-the-Water with its low bridges and riverside walks, or Bibury with the iconic Arlington Row cottages. If visiting on a Sunday, savour a traditional Sunday roast at a historic country pub – Yorkshire pudding, roast beef, and all the trimmings. Overnight in Cheltenham.

Day 3: Cotswolds to Barnstaple via Bath
Check out and drive south to the elegant Georgian city of Bath. Explore the remarkably preserved Roman Baths, where natural hot springs have drawn visitors for 2,000 years, and admire the stunning Bath Abbey and Royal Crescent. Continue west along the scenic A39, stopping briefly in mystical Glastonbury to see the legendary Tor rising above the Somerset Levels. Arrive in Barnstaple, North Devon's historic market town, by early evening. Overnight in Barnstaple.

Optional: Roman Bath admission ticket & Glastonbury Abbey admission ticket

Day 4: Barnstaple to Truro via North Cornwall Coast drive
Check out and embark on a spectacular coastal drive. First stop: Tintagel Castle, the legendary birthplace of King Arthur, perched dramatically on rugged cliffs. Explore the atmospheric medieval ruins and striking footbridge. Continue to Boscastle, a picturesque harbour village tucked into a narrow valley. Stop at Port Isaac, the charming fishing village famous as "Portwenn" in Doc Martin, with colourful cottages tumbling down to the sea. Arrive in foodie haven Padstow - Rick Stein's culinary capital – sample fresh Cornish seafood or a traditional Cornish pasty. Drive south to Truro. Overnight in Truro

Optional: Tintagel Castle admission ticket.

Day 5: Truro to West Cornwall - St Ives or Penzance
Spend the day exploring West Cornwall's stunning coastline and charming towns. St Ives, the iconic artist's haven, beckons with golden beaches, the Tate St Ives gallery, and harbourside cafés serving Cornish cream teas – perfect for a leisurely morning stroll through cobbled streets.
Alternatively, base your day around Penzance to explore the region's dramatic highlights. Visit the enchanting St Michael's Mount, a medieval castle on a tidal island accessible by causeway at low tide. Continue to the theatrical Minack Theatre, an open-air amphitheatre carved into granite cliffs 100 feet above the sea – one of Britain's most spectacular venues. Drive to Land's End, mainland Britain's most westerly point, where rugged cliffs meet the Atlantic. End your day at the Lizard Peninsula – stop at turquoise Kynance Cove with its serpentine rock formations, then watch the sunset at Lizard Point, England's most southerly tip. Return to Truro for the evening. Overnight in Truro.

Optional: Polgoon Vineyard wine tasting tour (Thursday, Friday & Saturday only).

Day 6: Truro to Plymouth via Dartmoor
Check out and drive northeast towards Dartmoor National Park, the wild moorland immortalised in Conan Doyle's The Hound of the Baskervilles. Stop in charming Tavistock or enjoy a traditional Devonshire cream tea at Two Bridges amidst dramatic granite tors. Continue to historic Plymouth, where Sir Francis Drake departed to circumnavigate the globe. Stroll Plymouth Hoe with sweeping views over the Sound, then explore the atmospheric Barbican quarter - cobbled streets where the Pilgrim Fathers boarded the Mayflower in 1620 bound for the New World. Overnight in Plymouth.

Optional: Alder Vineyard tour and tasting near Dartmoor, or Plymouth Gin Distillery tour in the historic Barbican.

Day 7: Plymouth to Exeter via South Devon Coast
Check out and drive east along the scenic A379 coastal route through South Devon. Stop at Slapton Sands, where a Sherman tank memorial commemorates the 946 American soldiers who died during Exercise Tiger in 1944 - a tragic D-Day rehearsal that remained classified for decades. Continue to elegant Dartmouth, a historic harbour town crowned by the Royal Naval College and 600-year-old Dartmouth Castle guarding the River Dart estuary. If time permits, visit Buckfast Abbey, a working Benedictine monastery with stunning gardens. Arrive in Exeter, Devon's historic cathedral city, by early evening. Overnight in Exeter

Day 8: Exeter to Bournemouth via Jurassic Coast
Check out and explore Exeter at your leisure. The magnificent Exeter Cathedral, nearly 1,000 years old, boasts the longest unbroken Gothic ceiling in the world and intricate medieval stonework – well worth a visit. Depart for the Jurassic Coast, a UNESCO World Heritage Site spanning 185 million years of geological history. Stop in Lyme Regis to hunt for fossils on Monmouth Beach and walk the iconic Cobb harbour wall. Continue east to the dramatic Durdle Door, a natural limestone arch jutting into turquoise waters – one of England's most photographed landmarks. Stroll to nearby Lulworth Cove, a perfect horseshoe bay carved by erosion. Arrive in Bournemouth by evening. Overnight in Bournemouth.

Optional: Exeter Cathedral guided tour.

Day 9: Bournemouth to London via Salisbury & Stonehenge
Check out and drive north to Salisbury, home to one of Britain's finest medieval cathedrals. Salisbury Cathedral boasts the tallest church spire in the United Kingdom (123 metres), houses one of only four surviving original copies of the Magna Carta (1215) - the cornerstone of English democracy and constitutional law - and features Britain's oldest working clock dating from 1386. Continue to the mystical Stonehenge, Britain's most iconic prehistoric monument. This 5,000-year-old stone circle continues to captivate visitors with its astronomical precision and enduring mysteries. Drive onwards through Windsor - if time permits, stop for a riverside walk or traditional pub dinner in this charming Thames-side town overlooked by Windsor Castle. Arrive at your hotel near Heathrow Airport by evening. Overnight near Heathrow

Optional: Salisbury Cathedral admission and Stonehenge timed entry tickets (advance booking required for Stonehenge).

Day 10: Departure
Check out from your hotel and return your rental car to Heathrow Airport. Depart on your homeward flight.
